Denmark State Bank Announces New Employees

DENMARK, Wis. (September 28, 2016) – To further enhance our growth and commitment to the communities we serve, Scot Thompson, CEO of Denmark State Bank, is proud to announce three new members to the Denmark State Bank team. Thompson said, “we are honored to have these experienced, respected professionals join our team as we continue to service and expand throughout the greater Green Bay market.”

James W. Meyer, Vice President / Business Banking. Meyer joined Denmark State Bank on August 29, 2016 after a 29-year career with BMO Harris, formerly M&I. He has excelled at managing business banking relationships, commercial loans and cash management sales in the Green Bay and Shawano area. Denmark State Bank is looking for an office space to house Meyer and a Loan Production Office in the Shawano area to better serve members of that community. Meyer is graduate of University of Wisconsin – Green Bay and holds a business and finance degree. He also has successfully completed the Graduate School of Banking program in Madison.

Treasury Management Sales Manager, Anne Denissen, joined Denmark State Bank on September 19, 2016, and will be working out of our Denmark Office. Anne holds a BA in Computer Science with a Business emphasis. She is an Accredited ACH Professional (AAP) and is a Certified Treasury Professional (CTP). Denissen, has 17 years’ experience as a sales officer, account executive and product manager. She will be working closely with our Retail, Business and Agribusiness bankers.

Jeff R. Wilke, joined Denmark State Bank on September 27, 2016 as a Vice President / Agribusiness Banker. Wilke has a Finance Degree from Marquette University and completed the Graduate School of Banking in Madison. He has 27 years of banking experience most recently being employed at Premier Community Bank in Marion where he was Senior Commercial / Agricultural lender and Vice President / Chief Credit Officer. His professional skills along with his personal experiences of being raised on the family dairy farm will be a great asset to the Agribusiness Banking team at Denmark State Bank. Wilke will also work from the new Loan Production Office in Shawano.
